

JSC “SEVMORNEFTEGEOFIZIKA” (HEALTH, SAFETY, ENVIRONMENT) POLICY

JSC “Sevmorneftegeofizika” (SMNG), being the leading marine geophysical company in Russia, is conscious of the importance of quality in the maritime safety management and constantly strives for the implementation of the best methods and ways of safety and environmental protection.

SMNG HSE Policy is in health protection and safe conditions in work performance for each employee, safety of vessels’ operations and pollution prevention in accordance with the requirements of the International Maritime Organization, Administration, classification societies, marine and geophysical industry establishments, and on this basis the increase of company’s competitiveness on the world market of marine geophysical operations.

To achieve the above goals, the company takes responsibility for the following:

- prevention of accidents and cases of emergencies, occupational diseases;
- prompt responding in cases of emergencies and minimizing their negative influence on human health and environment;
- carrying out scheduled maintenance of the vessels and equipment;
- observation of legislative and regulatory HSE requirements relevant to company activities;
- minimizing negative influence on the environment by pollution prevention, waste decrease and disposal;
- estimating all the identified risks, connected with the vessels, personnel and environment, and organizing an appropriate protection against these risks;
- constant improving of the skills of both ashore and aboard personnel in safety management, including training in cases of emergencies related to maritime safety and environmental protection.

Managing Director

JSC “SEVMORNEFTEGEOFIZIKA”

Oleg Penkov

20. 02. 2019